CHINESE WOMEN SHOT DEAD

JAPANESE ATROCITIES IN HUNGJAO AREA: WHAT BRITON WITNESSED

WORKMEN BEATEN WITH RIFLE BUTTS

Shanghai, Jan. 16. To-day's "North China Daily News" publishes accounts reported by a Briton who, happening to be on spot at the time, conducted an "exhaustive investigation," and also by "businessmen of long standing," of two incidents in the Hungjao area involving Japanese soldiers, in the first of which three old Chinese women were shot dead and another wounded and four Chinese men were either bayoneted or shot, and the second in which a Chinese employee of a British firm was seriously injured when he refused to give a "slightly intoxicated" Japanese soldier money.

The newspaper also cites several instances indicating that looting in the Hungjao area is developing into a "veritable traffic."

The first incident occurred on Thursday afternoon when a Japanese soldier, armed with bayonet and rifle, already somewhat intoxicated, according to the Briton, appeared in a village behind the Hungjao Golf Club and called for "women and drink."

No women were available, but liquor was provided which the soldier drank after which he proceeded to another village nearby.

Three old women sitting before a house were accosted by the soldier who repeated his demand for women. The women, all of whom were over 60 years of age, answered that there were none, whereupon the Japanese soldier immediately shot dead all three from a distance of about three feet.

The Japanese soldier then wandered on the golf course where he came upon the mother of one of the caddies and the brother of the club's assistant caddy-master, both of whom the Japanese shot and wounded. He then proceeded to bayonet the father of the caddy-master.

Still apparently searching for women, the newspaper continues, the soldier wandered in the country south of the club and shot and wounded two more Chinese men.

WORKMEN BEATEN

The second incident, the "North China Daily News" relates, involved two Japanese soldiers who accosted four Chinese workmen in a large flower nursery owned by a British.

The owner told the newspaper that the Japanese soldiers "both of whom seemed slightly drunk" came up and demanded money from the Chinese workmen who answered they had none. One of the workmen was scared and started to run away, whereupon the Japanese soldiers fired on him after beating all four with the rifle butts.

The soldiers then gave chase to the fleeing workman while the others looked on in horror. A second shot was heard and then the workman was later picked up seriously injured and his condition at present is critical.

Other instances of interference in the Hungjao area are related in the "North China Daily News" as reported by foreigners, one of whom said his small lorry which sends for vegetables from a private garden in that area, was commandeered by the Japanese and the vegetable confiscated at the Hungjao Road barrier. The lorry was later returned by a Japanese.

The newspaper says it is also reported that danger of looting by the Chinese in the Hungjao area is daily growing greater. It is said the sentries at the barrier charge looters 50 cents a bundle to permit them through.

Competent observers say this is fast developing into a "veritable traffic" which if not stopped, then Chinese from other districts may visit Hungjao to assist in the looting.

CO-OPERATION OF AMERICA IMPERATIVE

Suggested Boycott Of Japan

Brussels, Jan. 16.

That the governments of democratic countries should be persuaded to bring about a boycott against Japan was the suggestion made by the British Trade Union delegation, a suggestion which was supported by other delegations and which has received consideration of the Executive Committee of the Second International and Trade Union Nationale. Both committees were presided over by the Belgian senator, M. de Brouckere.

The Trade Union Nationale had already decided some time ago to demand a boycott.

The Executive Committee are aware that while considering the British delegation's proposal it would be imperative to obtain the co-operation of the United States in enforcing a boycott on Japan.

To-day the Executive Committee of the Second International will deliberate only on Spain.

CAR TOPPLES OVER BANK

Mrs. F. J. Wilkinson Slightly Hurt

A traffic accident occurred on the New Territories highway yesterday when car No. 1159, driven by Mrs. F. J. Wilkinson, plunged over the embankment in the vicinity of the 13 mile stone, near Taiipo.

The car dropped several feet, its occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, being thrown but, fortunately, without sustaining serious injury. Mrs. Wilkinson suffered a shaking and minor bruises.

BOYS KNOCKED DOWN

Two Chinese boys who ran out from Douglas Street into Connaught Road Central were knocked down by a passing motor lorry at 10 a.m. yesterday. One of the boys, Chu Fai, received slight injuries to his left leg, but refused to go to hospital. The other boy was uninjured.

SUICIDE JUMP FROM FERRY

In an attempt to commit suicide, a Chinese named Lai Wo jumped into the harbour from the ferry Man Kin about 10 a.m. yesterday as the boat was approaching the Hong Kong vehicular ferry wharf. He was rescued, however, by Cheung, who dived in and pulled the man to safety. Suffering nothing more serious than the effects of immersion, Lai Wo was sent to the Queen Mary Hospital.

Japan's Responsibilities For Peace In East Asia Heavier Than Ever

Tokyo, Jan. 16. Japan will henceforward cease to deal with the Chinese National Government and will look forward to the establishment and growth of the new Chinese regime with which it will fully co-operate for the adjustment of Sino-Japanese relations and for the building up of a rejuvenated China. This decision is the result of the recent Imperial Conference and was announced at noon to-day in a statement the draft of which was approved yesterday evening at a conference between members of Imperial Headquarters and the Cabinet.

The statement declares, "needless to say this involves no change in the Japanese Government's policy of respecting the rights and interests of other Powers in East Asia." It adds that Japan's responsibilities for peace in East Asia are heavier than ever and the Government fervently hopes that the Japanese people will put forth still greater efforts towards the accomplishment of this important task incumbent on the nation.

Asked if Tokyo's new policy as announced to-day meant that negotiations with Chiang Kai-shek's Administration were entirely precluded a Japanese Embassy spokesman replied, "I don't think so but the chance is very scant."

Asked if the Peiping Government should be regarded as being in the Japanese eyes the new Government of China, the spokesman answered, "ultimately it may be. But the statement does not say it will."

The spokesman countered a number of other questions by saying, "I think official comment will be made in Tokyo. I would rather not make any remarks on this statement. It is, as you know, very important."

GERMANY IS TREADING THE PATH OF PEACE

Tribute Paid To Fuhrer

Berlin, Jan. 16. The Yugo-Slavian Premier, Dr. Stojadinovic, was the guest of honour at a dinner given by the Reichs Foreign Minister, Baron von Neurath, at the Reichs Presidential Palace last evening. In toasting the visitor, Baron von Neurath expressed the wish that the German-Yugo-Slavian friendship would become still stronger and more deeply rooted.

He said, "Our two countries can rightly expect that the political, economical and cultural friendship existing between us is more regarded as what it actually is, namely, a real contribution to international understanding and peace and friendship with no ulterior motives of friendship which must be welcomed by all those to whom peace in Europe is dear."

The Reichs Foreign Minister then drank to the health of King Peter, the Prince Regent, the Premier and the Yugo-Slavian people.

Replying, the Yugo-Slavian Prime Minister praised the splendid work of reconstruction in the new Germany and stressed that it gave him great pleasure to have an opportunity to see so much of the country which was treading the path of peace under the leadership of its great Fuhrer. The Premier also gave an assurance that he would do all in his power to promote friendly relations between the two countries.

The Premier then drank to the German people, its great Fuhrer and all those who are helping him in his task.

BRIDGE BLOWN AS BOMBS DROP IN SHIUHING

Canton, Jan. 16. Seven bombs were dropped last night on Shiuhing, on the West River, in an air raid undertaken by three Japanese bombers. Ching Wan Bridge linking a principal highway, was completely demolished by a direct hit, and five persons were killed. Seven planes took off near Tongkwan this morning and flew over Chekwai. They did not come in the direction of Canton owing to bad weather.

GOLFERS' TRAIN BREAKS DOWN

RAIL SERVICE DISORGANISED

Service on the Kowloon-Canton Railway was disrupted yesterday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. following the break-down of the up-bound Canton Belle, crack car of the line, about three miles past Shatin. The hold-up was caused by a broken back-axle.

The car, which was carrying golfers to Fanling, left Kowloon at 8.45 a.m. Damage to the line was repaired by early afternoon and the evening train for Canton left at the usual time.

Realising that it might be dangerous to brake suddenly, the driver, when he found there was something amiss, allowed the car to run, pulling it up after about 500 yards. The coach was not damaged.

A further party of golfers, including the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith (Colonial Secretary), who took the 9.20 a.m. train had to return to Kowloon. They subsequently proceeded to Fanling by car.

A break-down van was sent from Kowloon and the disabled car was towed back to the station. The 1.25 p.m. train from Kowloon with many passengers for the Fanling races did not reach Fanling until shortly before 4 p.m.

JAPANESE LOSE SHIPS, PLANES

Anking, Jan. 16. One Japanese warship was sunk, four were damaged in the Yangtze River near Wuhu, and three Japanese planes were destroyed and five damaged at the Wuhu aerodrome, as a result of recent Chinese air-bombings, states a Chinese official announcement.

ESTOVER'S GOOD WIN AT FANLING

Record Crowd Enjoys Excellent Sport

Even more so than with the Christmas meeting was the January meeting of the Fanling Hunt and Race Club yesterday favoured by the weather, which was practically perfect except for a fairly high wind.

A large number of people attended and the Club was again honoured by the presence of His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Lady Northcote. Even during the first three races there were a lot of people lining the rails and when, around teatime, the long-delayed 1.25 train from Kowloon brought in further crowds, the attendance must have been one of the largest seen for a long time.

There were one or two very fair dividends, the best for a win being in the Happy Valley Handicap, when Estover paid $25.80.

This was in the nature of a surprise victory as Mr. Fielden's mount was carrying heavy weight, but she was well handled and fully deserved her win.

A CLOSE FINISH. The largest field was in the Hunters' Hurdles Race, when 13 starters ran, and this was won by favourite, Araxy (Mr. W. H. S. Davis up) after a very close finish. Mr. Browning on Mortmain gave him a great fight of it and was not beaten till the last few yards.

Sweepstake, considering the attendance, were rather poor, the best of the lot being on the last race of the day, the Ladies' Scurry, which brought in under $500. Miss Betty Fair rode a nice race in this event to bring in Zero ahead of Miss Pamela Scott-Harston.

Actress and Lover Said to Be Spies

Vladivostok, Jan. 15. The Soviet authorities have declined to release Miss Yoshiko Okada, 35, cinema actress, and her sweetheart Ryokichi Sugimoto, 31, who were arrested on the Soviet side of Saghalien Island towards the end of December. The Soviet insisted that they were engaged in espionage activity.

According to an official report from Governor Takeshi Imamura of South Saghalien, the two Japanese were ascertained to have illegally entered Soviet territory.

INVASION OF SOUTH CHINA IS STILL TALKED ABOUT

According to news received in the Colony last night there is still some considerable talk about the Japanese invasion of South China. Following the fall of Kimoit it is felt that Namoia will be the next objective because with Namoia in their hands it is felt that the Japanese will have another ideal base in South China. Only recently Japanese ships shelled Namoia but the gallant efforts of the Chinese defenders prevented them from landing.

The island is divided into two parts, the north being under the Soviets, the south under Japan.

Mr. Sugimoto gave his name as Yoshida. On the Japanese side of the island, they expressed to police officials that they would like to visit Soviet territory, and upon reaching the boundary the pair dashed over the line into Soviet territory.

Soviet military authorities are said to have taken a serious view of the matter, as the movement of the two Japanese was suspicious from the beginning. After divorcing her husband, Miss Okada had been in financial straits and was without work for some time. Mr. Sugimoto, alias Yoshida, is a graduate of the Russian literature course of Waseda University.

An unconfirmed report stated that the two Japanese had admitted that they were engaged in espionage work.

TUNGSTEN CONTAINERS

For Hospital Radium

A new heavy alloy has been developed in the Wembley Research Laboratories of Messrs. The General Electric Company, Limited, Magnet House, Kingsway, London, W.C., mainly for making containers for the large quantities of radium now used in therapeutic work, although applications have since been found for it in engineering work. If radium is to be employed efficiently in its therapeutic applications, the actual container must be as small as possible, and since the absorption of the harmful radiation by metals is directly proportional to their density it will be obvious that a smaller container can be made with metal of high density than with one of lower density. Such containers, or bombs, as they are called, have usually been made of lead, the density of which is 11.35 gm. per cubic centimetre, and may weigh from 50 lb. to 100 lb. The nose-piece of the bomb has sometimes been made of gold, but this metal is, of course, too costly to be used for the bomb itself.

The only other metal which is reasonably cheap and has a density comparable with that of gold is tungsten, but the high density of this metal is only attained by sintering tungsten powder at about 3,000 deg. C., and there are no available means for heating large masses of the metal, of the order of 1 cwt., to such a high temperature.

LIQUID PHASE

The problem has, however, been solved by mixing tungsten powder with a small proportion of a metal of lower melting point, so that a liquid phase is formed on heating the mixture to a moderate temperature. If, by this treatment, the tungsten particles are wetted

TENNIS WIN FOR AUSTRALIA

Budge Beaten: Not At His Best

Adelaide, Jan. 15. Australia defeated America by four matches to nil in the International Lawn Tennis match. In the last singles match John Bromwich, of Australia, defeated Donald Budge, the Wimbledon title holder, 6-8, 6-1, 6-3.

Budge was not at his best, and he is recovering from an attack of influenza. He did not play in the first singles encounter.

by the liquid metal, shrinkage of the mass occurs and densities closely approaching the theoretical value of 19.3 gm. per cubic centimetre are obtained.

Nickel and copper have been found to be suitable additions for this purpose. About 5 per cent. to 10 per cent. of a mixture of nickel and copper powder is added to the tungsten powder, which is then pressed to the required shape in a steel die and heated in an atmosphere of hydrogen to a temperature of 1,450 deg. C. Since a linear shrinkage of about 20 per cent. occurs in this sintering process allowance for this must be made in designing the dies. The alloy generally used for making radium bombs contains 4 per cent. copper and 6 per cent. nickel and the density of the finished pieces lies between 18.3 gm. and 17.0 gm. per cubic centimetre.

The density of the new alloy is, therefore, more than twice that of steel and some 50 per cent. greater than that of lead. We understand that practically all the large hospitals in this country have been equipped with radium bombs of this alloy. These bombs are made of various forms to suit special requirements, but they are usually about 6 in. in diameter with a wall thickness of about 1½ in.

CHINESE FIRM'S BANKRUPTCY

Adjudication Order Adjourned

Before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in the Bankruptcy Court on Saturday, an application for an adjudication order against the Ng Kwong Kam Loan Chan firm was brought by Mr. L. R. Andrews, Registrar.

Outlining the case, Mr. Andrews declared that since making the receiving order in December last, three creditors' meetings had been held, but no resolution was passed at any of these. The assets set off amounted to $100,000 but creditors alleged to have claims totalling nearly $1,000,000. The application was brought because the debtor was understood to have absconded.

Acting on behalf of 20 creditors, Mr. E. Davidson remarked that he was not opposing the application but merely asking for an adjournment. Declaring that no harm could be done in having adjournment as the firm was well-known, Mr. Davidson said that the business was run by one man, the proprietor of which was in Bangkok, whilst the Hong Kong manager had not absconded but was only sick in the country.

His Lordship granted the request, and the application was adjourned to the next Sessions.

THEFT FROM STORE

Chinese Admits Charge

Before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday, Ho Kwok-tung, who was charged with store-breaking and Au Yau, Li Cheung, Lo Oi, and So Hing, who were charged with receiving stolen property, were remanded for three days.

On checking up his stocks he found that goods amounting to the sum of about $500 had been stolen.

Acting on information received the police arrested Li Cheung, Lo Oi and So Hing while they were hawking the toys in Shanghai Street. Through the information given by them, Ho Kwok and Au Yau were also taken into custody. In pleading guilty to the charge Ho Kwok-tung admitted that he had entered into the store on six or seven occasions.

ARMY TRAINING

INSTRUCTION BY FILMS

London, Jan. 15.

Increasing use is being made of the screen in Army training. Instruction by films is largely employed for the objective training of troops in the use of weapons, transport, signalling, anti-gas defence, and ways and means of mechanisation.

Among the subjects taught by moving pictures, accompanied by explanatory talks by an instructor, are rifle shooting from various positions and the complete working of an automatic gun.

Drivers also are trained in the care and operation of motor vehicles, salvage and unditching, and signallers are shown the correct and incorrect methods of using the heliograph daylight lamp and telephone.

Demonstrations of the crossing of a river by a company of infantry teaches the use of the latest type of kapok bridging materials.

In other instructional films, artillery is seen negotiating trenches and hedges, coming into action, firing and going out of action, while infantry are seen preparing a village for defence and cavalry covering an advance. Driving and maintenance of tanks with methods of dismantling and reassembling are shown.

REPERCUSSIONS OF FRENCH CRISIS

London, Jan. 15.

Repercussions of the French Government crisis on the international situation resulted in constant telephonic communication between Downing Street and the hotel in Nice where the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, was staying until this morning.

It is understood that Mr. Eden, who flew back to London this morning, is calling on the Prime Minister some time during the day.

Much interest is attached to a report that before leaving Nice, Mr. Eden had a lengthy talk with Mr. Winston Churchill and Mr. Lloyd George, who are holidaying at Antibes, on the Riviera.

CREDIT FACILITIES FOR FARMERS

London, Jan. 15.

Consultations are proceeding between the Ministry of Agriculture and the National Farmers' Union concerning the scheme suggested by the Union for providing short term credit facilities for farmers.

The report of the Farmers' Union says that only a broad outline of the scheme has yet been discussed and the question of securing Government backing for the scheme, which is insisted upon by the Agricultural Mortgage Corporation as a condition of their co-operation, has not yet been dealt with in the discussions. The report adds that it is hoped that if a short term scheme can be launched successfully, the way will be paved for enabling reduction of rates of interest on future long term loans to be secured.

This was the first time guns were audible in the city since the exciting raid ten days ago when the schools at Saichuen were destroyed.

Eight planes were sighted at Tungshan at 8.20 a.m. apparently heading for Canton, for 25 minutes later, guns were again in action, but no details of the encounter are available. Several fragments of shrapnel were picked up in the Tungshan district.

ANGRY SCENES IN SENATE

Washington, Jan. 15.
Angry scenes were witnessed in the Senate yesterday, the eighth day of the filibuster against the Anti-Lynching Bill. Southern Senators openly attacking members of the Government belonging to their own party.
Senator Bailey (North Carolina) suggested that Mr. Harold Ickes, the Secretary of Interior, was a "rabble rouser who should go to Moscow."
He condemned Mr. Ickes' recent speech based on the book "America's Sixty Families," in which Mr. Ickes issued a warning to "concentrated wealth."
Holding the book aloft, Senator Bailey declared it might become known as the "Ickes Bible, but it is garbage all the same."
Senator Bailey then hurled the book on the floor, and Senator Smith (South Carolina) picked it up and flung it in a wastepaper basket.

THE SINGING MARINE

In the judgment of this reviewer, "The Singing Marine" is the best of the Dick Powell service pictures. The yarn runs like this: Dick is a bashful private in the San Diego barracks, in love with a waitress (Doris Weston, a newcomer to films), but afraid to tell her of his affection.
She's been saving her money to go to New York and get a try-out on the celebrated Major's amateur hour. Dick is heart-broken. His pals in the Marines know he's a good singer himself, so they chip in a couple of ducks apiece and finance a trip for him to the tryout.
Dick makes the grade. He gets a tremendous salary, keeps Doris on as his secretary. Then his big salary goes to his head. He neglects Doris, forgets his pals.
The cast includes Hugh Herbert, Allen Jenkins, Lee Dixon the Doc Rockwell of vaudeville fame, eccentric dancer, Jane Darwell, Marcia Ralston, Jane Wyman and Veda Ann Borg.
"The Singing Marine" is showing at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatre to-day.

CALL IT A DAY

What the balmy breath of Spring's first day does to slumbering hearts is the theme of a delightful comedy-drama entitled "Call It A Day," a Cosmopolitan production released by Warner Bros. which was shown yesterday at the Majestic Theatre.
The subject is appealing. As a stage play, "Call It A Day" ran for a couple of years in London, then for more than a year in New York. With the broader sweep of the camera, it is much better as a picture than it was behind the footlights.
Ian Hunter plays the part of a well-to-do Britisher. His wife is Frieda Inescort, noted London and Broadway actress. They have been married 20 years, and are pretty much in a rut.
Then there's a daughter of 18 or thereabouts—whom the lovely Olivia de Havilland—and another of 15, who's Bonita Granville, the celebrated brat of "These Three." Peter Willes, young British actor, is the son of the family. It's a well-settled, unemotional household.

SHOT DOWN BY MISCREANTS

Shanghai, Jan. 15.
Mr. Y. T. Van, the well-known Chinese criminal lawyer, and Mr. Y. L. Dai, described as director of the Chinese refugee camp, were both shot and seriously wounded by unidentified miscreants in different parts of the International Settlement yesterday.
The miscreants escaped and so far no arrests have been made.
It is not yet known whether the crimes were actuated by personal vendettas or as a result of the alleged connection of the two men, direct or indirect, with the so-called Nantao "Autonomous" Commission, which was formally inaugurated recently.—Reuter.

GEN. LIU IN HANKOW?

Japanese Pays Homage

Tokyo, Jan. 15.
The British Embassy to-day was the scene of a friendly drama when the distinguished Japanese author, Mr. Makoto Watanabe, wearing formal ceremonial dress, called on the Ambassador, Sir Robert Craigie.
The visitor, with the greatest courtesy, said he had always been most interested in England, and deplored the deterioration of Anglo-Japanese relations, which he hoped soon would be bettered.
He said he recognised that Mr. Anthony Eden had done the best with a most difficult situation, and begged to be permitted to present his ancestral sword, an heirloom of four centuries, to Mr. Eden.

GRAVE MISUNDERSTANDING

Sir Robert Craigie was deeply touched with the remarks and the gift, which he readily accepted.
Later, when interviewed by Reuter, the Ambassador displayed an ancient brocade case containing a magnificent eighteen-inch short sword, with a white decorated handle.
A serious misunderstanding arose from the incident, and the police later arrested Mr. Watanabe, having received information that a fanatic had visited the British Embassy with harmful intent.
When Reuter informed the Ambassador that Mr. Watanabe was under arrest, he expressed pain and amazement and expressed the hope that the author's release would soon be effected.—Reuter.

AT TSINING

Hankow, Jan. 15.
The situation at Tsining remains extremely obscure, as direct telephone communication between Hankow and the town is interrupted.
Heavy fighting is believed to be in progress. Chinese reports claim that the vanguards of the left flank of the Chinese forces have reached a point only six miles from Yenchowfu, while on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, Chinese troops entered Chowhsien, birthplace of Mencius, on Thursday.
The vanguards, it is claimed, reached Chungshintien and Mianhsaiyang, within striking distance of Yenchowfu.—Reuter.

Shanghai, Jan. 15.
"His condition is improving," Dr. E. G. Gauntlett told Reuter this morning, referring to Sub-Inspector John McPhee, who received two bullet wounds in the clash with armed gangsters yesterday.
A call for blood transfusion which was broadcast yesterday evening, resulted in all the men, and some women, who were attending a farewell cocktail party for Superintendent J. Sinclair, volunteering.
Superintendent Sinclair, it will be recalled, resigned from the Police after the incidents when British police officers were man-handled by Japanese soldiers.—Reuter.

JAPANESE CAUSE DISTURBANCE

In Shanghai Dance Hall

Shanghai, Jan. 15.
The entry of a party of eleven Japanese, believed to be of the Ronin type, into the Paramount ballroom shortly after 11 o'clock last night resulted in a disturbance which led to the closing of this popular amusement centre.

Four of the party were wearing uniform somewhat similar to the Japanese army and all kept on their hats. As soon as they arrived, they started to create disturbances. They shouted at other patrons, pushed and shoved and generally were most aggressive. While dancing they attempted to push aside everyone who happened to be in their way and one Japanese picked up a chair and waved it aloft until it was taken from him.

The other patrons remained quiet during the disturbance until one Japanese approached a Russian taxidancer, picked her up and started carrying her across the room, whereupon several patrons intervened.

Several Settlement police, including a Japanese sergeant and a foreign sergeant who were summoned by the management, were unable to pacify the Japanese party and the police finally advised the management to close the establishment to prevent further disturbances.—Reuter.

EARLIER REPORTS

Shanghai, Jan. 15.
General Han Fu-chu, Governor of Shantung, was executed in Hankow after a court martial had found him guilty of dereliction of duty, according to a despatch published in the Chien Pao, the Shanghai Chinese daily, to-day.

The paper also reports that two generals who formerly belonged to Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang's army, namely General Liu Tuo-chan, and Gen. Wan Fu-ling were executed on the order of General Chiang Kai-shek.

The Generalissimo, says the report, took action because of indiscipline and mutiny among their troops.—Reuter.

TSINGTAO'S NEW GOVERNOR

Tsingtao, Jan. 15.
Mr. Chao Chi, Director-General of the Tsingtao Administration under the former Peking regime, will most probably be appointed Governor of Tsingtao by the Peking Provisional Government, which has assumed jurisdiction over the port, according to reports.
Supporting these reports a despatch has been received stating that Mr. Chao is en route to Tsingtao by steamer, although he has two rivals for the post, namely Wen Shou-teh, former Governor and Chu Hsuan-pang, commander of the provincial troops in Wen's time. Chao's choice is most likely as he is persona grata with the Japanese and popular socially with foreigners.

It is expected the five-barred flag will be hoisted if and when he assumes office. Tsingtao was the last place in China to haul down this flag on the occasion of its departure on May 8, 1926.

After leaving, Chao gave instructions for the flag to fly over the administration building until his ship left port for Dairen. He was the Governor and Mayor from July 1925 to May 1926, when he left as a political refugee from the advancing nationalist troops.
Chao returned to Tsingtao after Shen Hung-lich was appointed Mayor and he remained there until last September when he went to Tientsin.

Railway guards and employees of the Kaokai Railway were marched to the police station and requested to leave the premises as the South Manchuria Railway was being taken over by the Japanese army. They added that at present they were taking an inventory.—Reuter.

STRATEGIC IMPLICATIONS

U.S. NAVAL VISIT TO SINGAPORE CAUSES SPECULATION

London, Jan. 14. Participation by American naval vessels in the opening of the Singapore Base is occasioning some speculation.

The announcement generally is interpreted as possessing significance much beyond that involved in a customary naval courtesy visit. Its strategic implications in view of the Far Eastern situation are obvious.

It is stated in London that the American warships represent the only foreign naval power asked to be present on this occasion, thus eliminating the suggestion made in some quarters that the French or Dutch, or even Japanese, might also attend.

Meanwhile the War Office has issued a statement on behalf of itself, the Admiralty and Air Ministry, announcing that combined operations and exercises will be held in Singapore at the beginning of February in which ships from the East Indies and China squadrons and the Royal Indian Navy, troops of the Singapore garrison, excluding volunteers, but reinforced by the 1st and 2nd Punjab Regiment and the Malay Regiment, and the R.A.F. squadrons at Singapore, reinforced by some units from India and Iraq, will participate.

The statement adds that a combined exercise of this nature will be carried out from time to time for testing the various defences of Singapore and as part of normal training.

The forthcoming exercise, which is expected to be on the same scale as last year, will be of a comprehensive nature and will afford further opportunity for studying particular problems affecting each service. The exercise, however, as is inevitable in such case, will contain artificial elements which will prevent any conclusions being drawn.

COMMANDING OFFICERS

London, Jan. 14. The Commander-in-Chief, East Indies Squadron, Vice-Admiral Sir Alexander Ramsay will be in command of the naval forces.

The military forces will be under the command of Major General W. G. S. Dobbie, General Officer Commanding, Malaya.

R.A.F. units in the defending force will be under the immediate command of Air Vice Marshal A. W. Tedder, Air Officer Commanding, Royal Air Force, Far East Command.

JOINT NAVAL DEMONSTRATION

New York, Jan. 14. Declaring that the Singapore Base is generally regarded as "Britain's answer to the Japanese bid for Far Eastern supremacy," the New York Times states: "Any agreement, express or tacit that there is made available to the American fleet facilities at Singapore would undoubtedly augment its strategic utility to a considerable extent, as would reciprocal privileges extended to the British at Pearl Harbour, Hawaii."

The newspaper adds that any naval operations which Singapore intended to thwart could be attempted only by the Japanese.

The Hearst journal "American," declares that the United States and Britain have decided on joint action if a war is forced on either by Japan, and describes the American visit to Singapore as a "joint naval demonstration."

CHINA RESOLVED TO FIGHT

Without Thought Of Surrender

Amsterdam, Jan. 15. Chinese diplomatic representatives from various European capitals, including Dr. Wellington Koo (Ambassador in Paris) and Dr. Sun Fo (on a special mission to Europe), left for London to-day, after discussions in an Amsterdam hotel.

Nature of the conversations were not divulged.

Prior to leaving Amsterdam, Dr. Sun Fo granted an interview to the correspondent of the London "Daily Telegraph," in which he declared his inability, at the present moment, to reveal the object of his European trip.

Much depended, he said, upon the outcome of his conversations in the Netherlands.

China, he added, was resolved to fight without thought of surrender, particularly as the Chinese army was growing in strength. The Chinese Government had only recently placed large orders for further supplies of war material, and the Chinese people were "quite prepared to withstand the effects of a prolonged war."

If would be ridiculous, he said, to regard China's present situation with unqualified gloom.

The Chinese were an industrious people and already plans had been drawn up which would assure the country's economic future.

HITLER INSULTED

By Former U.S. Ambassador To Berlin

Washington, Jan. 14.

The German Ambassador to Washington, Dr. Hans Dieckhoff, has protested to Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, against a speech delivered in New York yesterday by Mr. William Dodd, former U.S. Ambassador to Berlin, in which Mr. Dodd described Herr Adolf Hitler as "now more absolute than any medieval Emperor of Germany."

In an oral representation, Dr. Dieckhoff described Mr. Dodd's speech as an "unheard-of insult to a friendly nation."

Replying to the protest, Mr. Cordell Hull stated that he informed Dr. Dieckhoff that Mr. Dodd, having resigned his Ambassadorship, spoke as a private citizen, who, as an individual under the Constitution, was entitled to the freedom of speech.

It is believed that Dr. Dieckhoff acted on his own initiative to forestall the expected request by the German Government for a strong protest.

AMERICANS COMPLAIN OF LOOTING

Washington, Jan. 14.

DECISIVE BATTLE

Believed To Be Imminent

Hankow, Jan. 15.

Extensive preparations which are now being made by the Chinese and Japanese in the region of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, north of Hsuehchow, appear to indicate that important operations, which may perhaps be of a decisive character, are imminent in this sector.

According to Chinese military circles in Hankow, the Japanese are now concentrating large forces in the region round Taining, west of the Tsinan-Hsuehchow Railway, which include units from Tientsin.

The Japanese plan is to establish contact between the front on the northern sector of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway and the front on the southern sector of that railway, and it is believed that the Japanese are anxious to launch their attack before the Chinese have consolidated their positions in the region between the Hsuehchow-Tsinan and Lunglai Railways.

"The Japanese apparently think that the present moment, when the Chinese forces, particularly those in Shantung, are undertaking complete reorganisation, is particularly favourable for an attempt at a break through to the south."

CHIEF OBJECTIVES

The Japanese probably also hold the view that it will be extremely difficult for them to make any appreciable progress in the sector around the southern section of the Tientsin-Hsuehchow Railway as long as stiff Chinese resistance on the northern sector continues.

The offensive against Hankow, which is still believed to be one of the chief objectives of the Japanese, will therefore probably not be launched before the junction between these fronts is effected.

Belief that a large-scale attack on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway is imminent, is also confirmed by the fact that the Japanese are continually bombing towns, bridges and roads along the Tientsin-Pukow and Lunglai Railways.

According to latest reports, heavy fighting is now in progress at Taining as well as Chowhsien.

Nerve stimulant and nutrient:

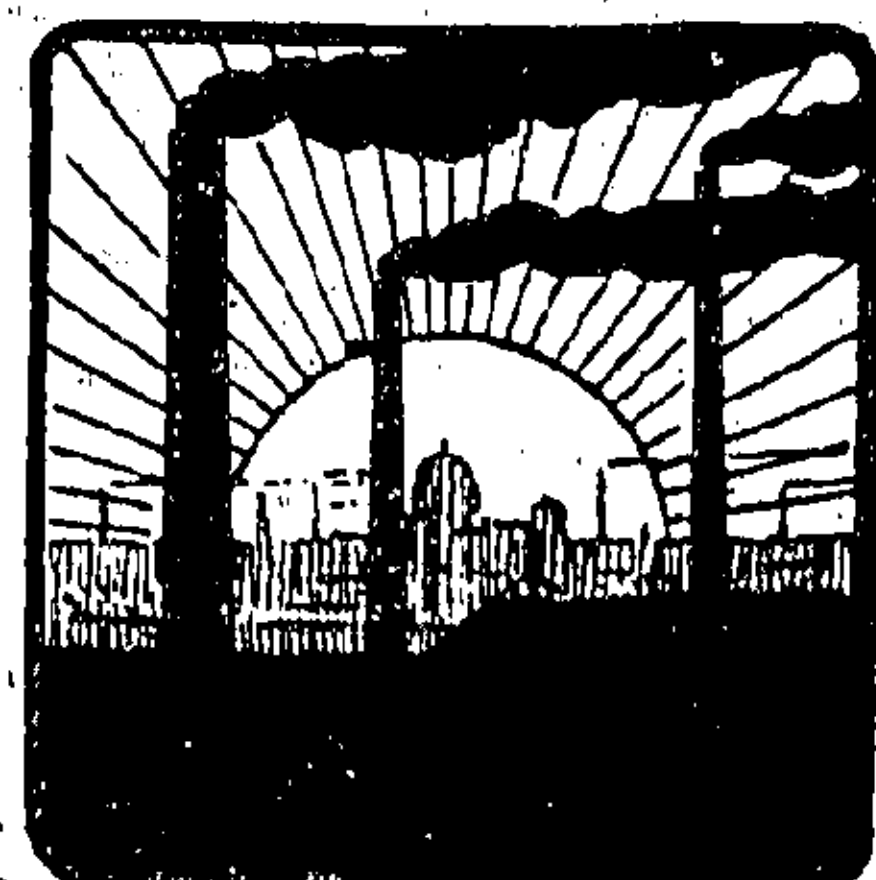

At the time "Serravallo's Tonic" was sent to me I was commencing convalescence from an attack of influenza. I was very weak and exhausted and great nervous prostration with the usual insomnia and loss of appetite. I at once began to take "Serravallo's Tonic" and am much pleased to say that I found it in every way what I needed. It is an invaluable tonic and nerve stimulant and nutrient. As I did so much for myself I need not assure you I shall strongly recommend it to my patients.

友之國中

HONG KONG, JANUARY 17, 1938.

THE JAPANESE PEOPLE AND THE WAR

Are the people of Japan satisfied with the war operations of their militarists? This is the question that peace-loving people of other countries are concerned about. The strict censorship of the mails and the virtual martial law in Japan, plus the well-planned government propaganda machine which has succeeded to a considerable degree in inciting nationalist sentiment, have given the impression that the nation is solely behind the Government.

In the first quarter of 1937, official figures show 923 labour conflicts involving 128,362 people while for the corresponding period of the previous year there were 538 conflicts involving 23,436 people. Strike struggles took on a mass character and the number of strikes in the bigger plants increased, especially those engaged in the production of armaments. The fascist Government was able to suppress these mounting struggles only by launching a war against the Chinese people, and under the protest of a "national emergency" the Government has prohibited the working class from holding any meetings of a political nature.

The remarkable victory won by the Social Mass Party at the last national elections and at the subsequent municipal elections in which the party campaigns were based on the fight against fascism and for peaceful relationship with China, are proof that the common people of Japan hate fascism and, consequently, the war against the Chinese people.

It must be recalled further that speeches made in Parliament bitterly attacking the military clique for their despotic measures received sweeping support from the great majority of the population. Thus it becomes clear that the Japanese people did not want the undeclared war.

It was this mass sentiment for peace against the dictatorial orientation of the War Office, among other things, which the Japanese General Staff took into consideration when it decided to start what is one of the most brutal wars in the history of the world. Napoleon's adage was "To keep the people occupied, make war without," and the Japanese General Staff appears to have taken a leaf out of his book. The Japanese people are being "united" behind the policeman's whip. When, for example, the employees at a certain factory complained of the quality of foodstuffs, they were immediately visited by the police with revolvers in their hands.

Some people seem to get away with a lot, and certainly the Japanese Government belongs to that type. A week ago an Imperial Conference was held in Tokyo and up-to-date, the world does not know the result of the Conference, much less the people of Japan.

JAPAN SEEKS PEACE

Sunday, January 16

According to messages received from Tokyo, foreign relations occupy the chief place in recent statements given to the press by the Premier, Prince Konoye, and the Foreign Minister, Mr. Koki Hirota. On examining these statements it is not surprising to find that both these astute politicians appealed to the world to take a "fair view of the Sino-Japanese" dispute. The Premier, after making a statement to the effect that Japan "is receiving sympathetic encouragement from progressive nations," went on to say that "to overcome international difficulties as peacefully as possible, it (the nation) will need a gigantic reserve of national power."

Of course it never occurred to this very clever statesman that the first essential for promoting peace and goodwill between nations is to leave "the other party" alone and not interfere with its internal organisation!

With astuteness that matches the best that Japan can produce, Prince Konoye, the Premier, made two specific references to Japan's friendship with Germany and Italy, at the same time attaching "great importance" to the attitude of Soviet Russia. In this connection Mr. Hirota said that opinion in Japan had been disconcertingly impressed by the Non-Aggression Pact concluded between Moscow and the Central Government. But nobody expected the Sino-Soviet Pact would create anything but an unfavourable impression in Tokyo.

To use Mr. Hirota's own words, "great importance is obviously attached to the attitude of the Soviet Union. It is not going too far to say that the conclusion of the Sino-Soviet non-aggression pact gave the impression that Soviet munitions supplies to China have been guaranteed politically." The Foreign Minister then goes on to dwell on Japanese-American relations, and says that "friendship has developed considerably of late."

We are tempted to remind Mr. Hirota that incidents such as the bombing and sinking of the Panay will not tend to bring about closer relations between the two countries, and also that there have been, since the beginning of the hostilities, several anti-Japanese demonstrations in the United States. Yet Mr. Hirota speaks of the development of friendship.

"As a result of the recent complete abolition of extraterritoriality," the Foreign Minister states, "Manchukuo has become a modern and unified state"—so "modern and unified" in fact, that the Japanese troops which were sent to Formosa preparatory to the South China invasion had to be recalled owing to the "growing unrest" in Manchukuo.

To return to the message of the Premier again, he says that Japan's "real intention at present is to help China to recover from its degeneration and thus provide an unshakable foundation for the development and stability of East Asia in order to make it one of the mainstays in true organisation of world peace." Almost in the same breath, however, he says that "Japan can only march ahead and for this purpose it must mobilise, more organically than at present, the whole strength of the whole nation on behalf of the objectives of the State."

Well, Japan has mobilised the whole strength of the whole nation and yet, despite this, she now finds that the "objectives of the State" are, after all, not so easy to gain.

She then, to our mind, tries a colossal bluff and the Imperial Conference is convoked. The world calls her bluff and finally Tokyo "defers judgment"—which is another way of saying that further negotiations will not be scoffed at.

It is not China who is now seeking peace. Rather it is the other way about, for Japan, having pitted the whole of her national strength against China, finds that after capturing a few cities and murdering thousands upon thousands of innocent civilians, she comes face to face with what appears to be financial ruin and the only way out is... peace.

SZECHWAN RECLAMATION PROJECT

War Refugees To Be Put On Vast Scheme

Chungking, Jan. 16.

Calculated to solve the war-time food problem, a large-scale reclamation project has been formulated by the Szechwan Provincial Government.

According to the project, 5,000,000 mow of waste land in the districts of Tungkiang, Nankiang, Pachung, Peichuen, Pingwu and Yungchuen will be reclaimed by war refugees who have migrated into Szechwan.

Plans for exploiting the mines in the province are also under consideration. A geological research institute will soon be established at Chungking to take charge of the investigation of the mineral resources.—Central News.

Mountainous Waves Sweep Crew Overboard

London, Jan. 16.

A hurricane which raged all over England yesterday had not abated by the evening. The storm has, so far, caused four deaths.

Mountainous waves crashed over the coastal steamer Suffolk sweeping eight members of the crew and one passenger overboard. The captain and first officer were drowned. The others were saved, one member of the crew being severely injured.—Transocean News Service.

Singapore Naval Base

French To Attend Opening

Paris, Jan. 15.

Not only American, but also probably French, warships are to be present at Singapore when the British Navy holds the inauguration ceremony of its new base. It was declared here to-day in semi-official circles.

In reply to reports that America intended to send three cruisers to participate in the festivities, it was revealed that three French warships, "Georges Leygues," "Ore" and "Montrouin," as well as two modern submarines stationed in Indo-China will probably be sent to Singapore.—Transocean News Service.

U.S. AND BRITAIN TO BUILD

Washington, Jan. 15.

Britain and the United States are prepared to "disregard" the London Treaty of Limitations pertaining to the size of battleships if reports that Japan is building larger battleships are confirmed, according to high authorities here.

An Administration spokesman expressed the belief that the Treaty Powers might ask Japan formally for information with regard to her building programme before taking action, and said if the reports are confirmed, the United States Navy will unquestionably seek authority to build battleships equal or larger in size.

Mr. Claude Swanson (Secretary of the Navy) said that President Roosevelt would probably send his naval expansion message to Congress on Monday or Tuesday.—Reuter.

Little Activity On Teruel Front

Madrid, Jan. 16.

Very little activity on the Teruel front was reported by the Republican Spanish defence ministry here last night. In a Madrid suburb of Teruel, Republican troops succeeded in blowing up the enemy's store of explosives resulting in "the death of 50 Nationalist soldiers. This momentarily caused great confusion amongst Nationalist troops and the Republicans then lodged a sudden attack, the latter retreating to their own lines after the enemy had brought up reinforcements. From other fronts there is nothing new to report. On two occasions yesterday evening, Nationalist bombing planes flew over Barcelona at a great height dropping bombs which caused death to a few civilians and only slight material damage.

The Nationalist headquarters announced last night that there was nothing to report from any of the fronts.—Transocean News Service.

Shanghai Municipal Police Promotions

Shanghai, Jan. 15.

The promotion of two Japanese members of the Shanghai Municipal Police to Chief Inspector, is characterised by S.M.C. officials as a purely routine measure.

This declaration was made in an effort to refute allegations that the promotions were a result of the Japanese demand for greater representation on the administration of the Council.

Foreign circles, meanwhile, attach more importance to vacancies which are scheduled to occur in the Police in the near future.

It is stated that the regular term of office of the Commissioner of Police, two Vice-Commissioners and Assistant Commissioner, is

U. S. VISIT SURPRISES SINGAPORE

No Question Of Joint Naval Display

Singapore, Jan. 15.

Most surprising feature of the much heralded and discussed visit of American cruisers to Singapore, allegedly in connection with opening of the naval base, is that the local naval authorities have not been advised of the visit and entirely discredited the reports.

They state that as far as is known, no naval power has been asked to be present, the Admiralty regarding the function as purely of Empire interest.

The local naval authorities state that if there is a visit from American cruisers (though they have not yet been advised) it will be an entirely unofficial one, with no question of "participation" in any ceremony or in a "joint naval demonstration" as described in the Hearst journal, the "American".—Reuter.

"ADVANCE BASE OF THE BRITISH FLEET"

Tokyo, Jan. 15.

The Japanese press features the visit of United States cruisers to Singapore on February 14 in connection with opening of the new naval base.

The "Yomiuri Shimbun" in an editorial declares that Japan is forced seriously to be interested in the completion of this "advance base of the British fleet, with Japan as the objective."

The paper considers that the ceremonial opening may be regarded as a demonstration against Japan, while the presence of the American squadron conceivably seeks to create the impression that Britain and the United States have reached an understanding in the Pacific Ocean.

Questioning whether the United States is fully aware of the British Government's "subtle and sinister politics," and forecasting the unfavourable repercussion of such actions on the Far Eastern situation, the paper hopes that Britain and the United States will consider this point carefully and will adopt a policy of discretion.—Reuter.

NEW CAISSONS FOR DEVONPORT

London, Jan. 16.

Swan Hunter and Wigham Richardson, of Wallsend, have received an order from the Admiralty for the construction of two large floating caissons for Devonport Dockyard. One of the caissons will be built in the dock at Devonport and the other will be constructed at Wallsend.—British Wireless.

MARXIST UNION TO BE DISSOLVED

Bucharest, Jan. 16.

The Rumanian Minister for Labour announced at a meeting of the Christian national workers organisation Phalanx yesterday that the Marxist Union would soon be dissolved and the old guilds reintroduced. PORTUGUESE FAR SUPERIOR TO AIRMEN

FIVE-TWO VICTORY IN JUNIOR SHIELD

Many Goals Missed By Faulty Shooting

The Portuguese S. A. should have scored at least ten goals instead of five in their Junior Shield football match yesterday against the Royal Air Force on the Kowloon Football Club ground. That they were unable to do so was due to two main factors: firstly, hopelessly inaccurate shooting and a deplorable weakness in front of the goal in the first half. However, they made up amply in the second period, and did well to win by five goals to two after the Airmen had led by the only goal scored at the end of the first half.

From the outset it was apparent that the Airmen were up against considerably better-trained and nippier men, whose pretty short passing tactics were a delight to watch; but when they had time after time, having beaten the defence, failed to notch a goal as the result of inaccurate or weak shooting, there were many who believed that the hard-working if not particularly classy Airmen might, with luck, carry the day. Such, however, was not to be the case, for the Portuguese shooters improved vastly in the second half and the goals came in rapid succession.

Beyond the faults already mentioned, the Portuguese played extremely well with, perhaps, the exception of the back division where neither Gomes nor Aquino were impressive. They were repeatedly caught out of position and showed indecision and a strange weakness in tackling. Actually, Fernandez did not have a great deal to do in goal, but the first one let through was what is usually described as a "dither". It was a long shot taken at an acute angle from the left wing, and Fernandez had bags of time to watch its progress goalwards, but he missed the ball absolutely. What that exception his work was fairly creditable.

Superior Forwards

With the exception of their earlier shooting mistakes, the Portuguese forwards played pretty football, and were decidedly superior to the opposing quintette, showing infinitely better ball control. While the Portuguese seemed to work rings round the Airmen with their short, nippy passes (the correct tactics for a fast ground), the latter adopted long, swinging passes which invariably lost them the ball. But the Airmen certainly knew how to take their chances and make most of them. With one exception. When Allen, faced with an open goal, shot weakly outside, the Airmen gave of their best and could hardly have done better than register two goals. Territorially, the Portuguese had seventy-five per cent. of the play.

The Airmen's strongest point was in defence for the greater part of the day, but even this seemed to crumble down in the latter stages. Prune, in goal, started off most promisingly and had stopped at least four shots in the first fifteen minutes. His failure in the closing stages was therefore somewhat surprising. As a team they were more hard working than clever, and among the forwards Elton, who scored both their goals, was prominent with his speed.

Portuguese Dominate

Success certainly went to the better side, but their shooters would certainly do well to take a few lessons in accuracy. Almost from the kick-off, the Portuguese forwards dominated play, and time and again Lawrence, from the right wing, centred skillfully for Gaan to shoot. Prune, however, rose to the occasion each time. Taking a long pass from Ribeiro, Lawrence put Gaan in possession, but the latter's shot missed by inches.

A combined movement among the Portuguese forwards saw Gaan and Santos beat Goodwin in good shooting distance, but the Portuguese failed to clinch the opportunity, allowing Hillier time to rush up and clear. A pass from the right saw C. Santos in possession with only Prune to beat, but his kick failed to connect with the ball.

Fernandez Grabs Air

Two minutes later the Airmen opened the scoring through Elton, who, taking a pass from Hillier, worked it down the left wing on his own and shot from long range, the ball going into the net while Fernandez grabbed the air. The Portuguese seemed to find their true form in the second half. The equaliser came from Campos shortly after the resumption, and this was followed by a splendid goal by Gaan, who, breaking away almost from his own goal-mouth, rushed down in a lone run, beat Froude, and sent in a hard shot which gave Prune no chance. After this the goals came in rapid succession. Gaan scored the third goal, Campos the fourth and fifth. Just before the end, Elton reduced the lead for the Airmen.

The teams were as follows: Portuguese S.A.—I. Fernandez; L. Gomes, and D. Aquino; J. Pereira R. Ribeiro and C. Figueiredo; H. Santos, H. Campos, M. Gaan, C. Santos and E. Lawrence.

Royal Air Force—Prune; Goodwin and Froude; Kennedy, Hillier and Bayman; Elton, Allen, Feyer, Hamilton and Pharaoh.

Rugby Football

ARMY BEATEN BY CLUB

McGrath's Great Game At Back

A very good game was seen on the Club ground on Saturday when a much improved Army XV met the Club in their last Triangular Tournament Rugby football match. The Army fielded a superior side to that which had previously been crushed by both the Club and the Navy, the work in the scrums in particular being very fine, and the margin of 35 points to 19 against them was hardly a true reflection of the play.

Lieut. Chiverall, Lieut. McLagan and Fus. Perritt were probably the outstanding players but almost every member of the team had moments of brilliance.

For the Club McGrath played a great game at full-back and Bonnar and Butcher did fine work in the scrums. Bidwell was again the pick of the three-quarter line but at times his play was too individualistic.

Teams:—Army:—Fus. Perritt (Fullback); L. Cpl. Ayrton (R.A.S.C.), Lt. R. D. MacLagan (Scorers), Fus. Watkins (Fullback) and 2/Lt. Chiverall (Middlesex); Pte. Rainey (Scorers) and Sgt. Bailey (R.A.S.C.); Pte. Richardson (Scorers), Pte. Knowles (Scorers), Spr. Rumball (R.E.); 2/Lt. I. A. MacLagan (Scorers), Cpl. Wainscote (R. C. of Signals), Spr. Hall (R.E.), Capt. Gillespie (R.E.) and Lt. Crawford (R. C. of Signals).

Club 1st XV:—M. W. McGrath; D. H. Stewart, H. D. Bidwell, W. E. Grieve, M. G. Carruthers; A. H. R. Butcher, J. L. Bonnar; K. A. Watson, W. E. Peers, E. N. Stout; A. F. Holden, B. Hynes; J. C. Miller (Captain), A. J. G. Taylor and J. Redman.

Below are the final standings in the Triangular Tournament:—

	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Navy	4	4	0	0	8
Club	4	2	2	0	4
Army	4	0	4	0	0
	12	6	6	0	12

FRIENDLY MATCH

In another game H. M. S. Cumberland beat the Club "A" team by three tries to a goal. They were leading by two clear tries (six points) at the interval but the Club team improved after the rest. The chief reason for the latter's defeat was scrappy work in the back division.

Teams:—H.M.S. Cumberland: L. S. Eastling; L. A. C. Sowerbutts, Surg. Lt. Bradbury, L. S. Wilson, and Wt. Gnr. Taylor; Pay. Mid. Collins and L. Sto. Willis; Sgt. Aitken, R.M. E.R.A. Bigley, Mid. Henderson; Comdr. Hopper, Mid. Larken; A. B. Symmons, Mne. Taylor and Sig. Waller.

Club "A" XV: F. Cessford; H. van Leeuwen, E. Taverner, E. M. Watts, H. E. Hopkins, C. W. Lyle (Captain), P. R. Henderson; T. Swan, T. H. Pratt, K. H. G. White, J. Hynes, A. S. Olsen; A. G. Dalziel, G. L. Eastgate and J. K. Birt.

Thrilling Finish To International WALES' BRILLIANT WIN OVER ENGLAND

London, January 16. Before a crowd of 60,000, Wales beat England to-day by 15 points (a goal, a try and two penalty goals) to eight points (a goal and a try) in an international rugby match at Cardiff. A terrific wind was blowing when the teams took the field and continued throughout the game to be followed later by a blinding storm.

England kicked off against the wind and Morgan missed a glorious chance when he knocked on after a fierce forward rush in the opening minutes.

The wind was proving most troublesome. How fierce it was can be judged when it is said that once when Crammer tried to find touch, the ball landed ten yards behind him!

Wales were aggressive, but eventually Sever relieved and Freakes came into the picture with a great tackle and clearance. After an English attack, a long punt down the field left McCauley a clean run and though Freakes cut across he could not prevent the try. The effort at conversion failed. This was exactly a quarter of an hour after the start.

Territorially, Wales were decidedly having the advantage. Soon after, England were penalised for a scrum infringement and Jenkins kicked a magnificent goal from just inside the touch line just inside England's half. At this stage, the England defence was much harassed, only relieved by occasional dribbles and dashes by Sever.

England Score

Just on the half-hour, Nicholson intercepted a Welsh passing movement in the England half, brilliantly dashed through and transferred to Candler ten yards from the line and Candler made a magnificent run and touched down between the posts. Crammer's kick, however, touched the upright.

Wales fought back splendidly and England were again penalised for "feet up" and Jenkins kicked another long-distance goal. At the interval Wales were leading by nine points (a try and two penalty goals) to three points (a try). The second half started in thrilling fashion. A minute from the resumption Wales got a surprise try as the result of a bad blunder on the part of Freakes. When Idwalrees kicked ahead and followed up, Freakes missed the ball completely and Idwalrees, regaining possession, raced over and touched down between the posts. Jenkins converted.

Inspired Tackling

Soon after, Weston nearly got over from a line out, but Davey, whose tackling was an inspiration to the Welshmen, brought him down. The Welshmen were now even in worse straits than were England in the first half so far as the weather was concerned, for in addition to the wind, there was blinding rain.

Another brilliant run by Sever caused anxiety, but was foiled by Cliff Jones dropping too far back to take the pass that was meant for him.

Then followed a most fierce battle among the two packs and one of the England men was warned after an incident which resulted in Watkins having to leave the field with a leg injury. However, Watkins was quickly back on the field, but shortly afterwards Clement was carried off.

The closing stages were most thrilling, especially when Bassett and Nicholson almost scored. Three minutes from time Sever's persistence was rewarded and he scored a smart try which Freakes converted.

Wales were the better balanced side. Their strength lay in the speed of the three-quarters where Idwalrees and Bassett were outstanding.—Reuter.

Weakened St. Joseph's Good Showing EASTERN FAIL TO MAINTAIN FIRST HALF LEAD

Playing with ten men for the greater part of the first half, St. Joseph's shared points with the Eastern in a first division match played on the Navy Ground, Causeway Bay, yesterday.

St. Joseph's stalwarts, Remedios and Beltrao, were unable to play and their places were taken by N. Delgado and Sprinkle. Another reserve, E. Marques, filled the place of C. Marques. Although somewhat inexperienced, Marques was very aggressive and shone on several occasions, being directly responsible for the equalising goal.

Leonard, in the pivot position, showed good leadership and found swinging the ball beneficial when attacking. Alves on the left wing was starved somewhat—a pity since he was dangerous when in possession.

On the Chinese side How Ching-tow was the most outstanding player, scoring both goals. The others were prone to individualism.

THE TEAMS

Eastern:—Sammy Tsang; Lo Wal-men, Kok Bing-ching; Ng Tuck-wing, Chen Chung-wen, Lo Wal-kuen, Chen Bing-to, Lee Tuck-kee, Sung Ling-shin, Kok Ying-kee and How Ching-tow.

St. Joseph's:—R. Marques; Hassan, Delgado; D. Leonard, Sprinkle, E. Marques; Castilho, Ward, Gomes and Alves.

The Eastern, kicking off, allowed St. Joseph's to penetrate into their territory and after a few minutes play, retaliated by breaking through and scoring two goals in quick succession. With St. Joseph's defence mixing in the goal-mouth, How Ching-tow came in from the wing and, after beating the backs, netted the opening goal. A minute later he evaded Hassan and put the Eastern further in the lead.

ST. JOSEPH'S SCORE

Thus put on their mettle St. Joseph's attacked vigorously and found their way to the Chinese goal where Alves shot hard but Sammy Tsang saved by deflecting the ball. From the corner kick Castilho trapped it, passed to Ward who slammed it behind Tsang, giving St. Joseph's their first goal. Following up with repeated at-

LADIES' HOCKEY

Seaforth Ladies Unlucky

Three games were played in the Brawn Cup hockey series on Saturday and resulted as follows: Central British Schoolgirls beat Seaforth Ladies 4-1; Seaforth Ladies drew with Central British School "B"; and "Y" Ladies junior team beat C.B.A. juniors 6-1.

The best game of the three was that between Seaforth Ladies and C.B.S. "B," though the former were perhaps unlucky in not being able to claim full points. Mrs. Ackroyd gave them the lead in the first half and it was not until a couple of minutes from time that the C.B.S. equalled through Miss Turnbull.

CAER CLARK CUP

"Y" Ladies, after a very close first half, beat Hong Kong Ladies by three goals to nil in their return match in the Caer Clark Cup and have thus put themselves in an unchallengeable position for championship honours.

The "Y" lead of one-nil in the first half was against the run of play as Hong Kong definitely had more of the ball at this stage, and were making better use of it. In the second half, however, they asserted their superiority clearly.

Teams:—

"Y" Ladies:—Miss J. Lakesman, Mrs. Burke, Miss A. Fowler, Miss K. Tonge, Miss M. McCaw, Mrs. A. B. Henry, Mrs. G. C. Burnett, Mrs. J. Gardner, Mrs. Read, Miss M. Smith and Miss M. Westcott.

H. K. Ladies:—Mrs. J. Lunson, Miss E. M. Gray, Miss B. Helbling, Miss J. Dalziel, Miss B. Pope, Miss V. Gordon-Smith, Miss M. Smalley, Miss F. Marsh, Mrs. Serlingour, Mrs. Waddell and Miss Purves.

In another league game St. Andrew's Ladies beat C.B.A. Ladies by the odd goal in five. The scores were two-all for some time and things all pointed to a draw when

DAVIS CUP TENNIS

Germany In European Zone Matches

Berlin, January 16.
Germany will not exercise her prerogative and compete in the American Zone of the Davis Cup this year, according to an announcement made yesterday by the Reich Association for Physical Education, but will take part in the European Zone matches.

This comes as a surprise, a great many followers of the game, but it is explained that the American Lawn Tennis Association has not yet decided whether to hold the Zone matches in the spring or in August. Under these circumstances there was the possibility that the German team would have to make two trips for the first round matches.

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Report

Messrs. G. A. Harriman and Co.'s weekly share report and market review issued on Friday night states:—

A slightly better tone prevailed during the week under review, but the volume of business transacted was not on a large scale. Manila also shared a stronger market with sales generally recorded at higher levels due to better political news in the Philippine Islands.

There was a good demand for utility shares. Hong Kong Trams were done up to $13.90, closing a shade easier with business put through at $13.75. Star Ferries are $80 buyers and Yaumateis $32. H. K. Electric had sales at $52 1/2, at the latter rate shares were available at the close. China Lights (old) showed great activity, having been traded in at $10.20/10.40. Telephones (new) could be placed at $8.35. Docks had buyers at $2 1/2. Lands were dealt in at $31 1/2. In the industrial descriptions, Hotels were wanted @ $5.20 with sellers asking $5.30. Providents (old) remained steady @ $2.05. Cements were transacted @ $12.70. Ropes had enquired @ $3 1/2. Upon the announcement of the final dividend of $3, Banks were suddenly marked up with sales reported as high as $14.85 but subsequently eased off a bit owing to unsettled conditions generally. Unions were neglected at $510 nominal.

CHINA'S AIR FORCE

Official Record Of Activities

Hankow, Jan. 15. An official record of the activities of the Chinese Air Force made public to-day shows that since January 1, Chinese planes have made fourteen raids, their objectives being the Japanese airfields, warships and military bases.

The Chinese in that period have sunk four Japanese warships in the Yangtze.

Two between Takung and Wuhu on January 3.

One at Takung on Jan. 11, and one at Lukang, also on Jan. 11.

It is further stated that two Japanese troop trains were blown up at Hsuanchen near Wuhu on January 11.

KWANGTUNG SUCCESS
 Nanking, Wuhu and Hangchow were among the Japanese military bases visited by Chinese air raiders, but the best success of any single raid was achieved at Kwangtung, one hundred miles to the southeast of Nanking.

There at least ten Japanese planes were destroyed on the airfield on January 10 and the gasoline depot there was set on fire in another raid on the same day.

STUDENT PILOTS DO WELL
 The Chinese Air Force also gave a good account of itself in aerial combats with Japanese planes raiding Chinese cities.

A notable success was obtained at Nanning, the ex-capital of Kwangsi Province where the Chinese Aviation School is located.

The Japanese paid four visits there and each time they were engaged by student pilots who shot down altogether nine Japanese planes.

JAPANESE SURPRISED
 These official claims cover the whole of the Chinese Air Force, which includes Soviet and other foreign aviators, who are reported to have given a splendid account of themselves.

The reports, too, are confirmed by other sources. A Briton who was an eye-witness of the Chinese raid on Wuhu on January 7 told Reuter: "There were about a hundred Japanese planes in the airfield. The Japanese were taken completely by surprise and a large number of Japanese planes was destroyed."

"The Chinese claim to have destroyed only three planes in a far too modest"—Reuter.

GENERAL HAN NOT EXECUTED

Shanghai, Jan. 16. It is now confirmed that General Han Fu-chu was arrested and transported to Hankow for trial, but the Chinese report that he was executed is incorrect though this will possibly be the verdict of the court martial.—Reuter.

TRADE WITH THE EAST

Czechoslovakia To Seek Expansion

Prague, Jan. 16. The Czechoslovakian Export Institute is about to send a representative to the Far East, namely Bangkok, Hong Kong and Shanghai, in order to bring about closer business relations and to manage the branch of the Institute which will be set up in one of these cities.

This officer will make an analysis of the nature of the trade relations between the countries concerned and the Export Institute feels that a considerable increase in the volume of business may be effected.—Transocean News Service.

LEATHER FACTORY AFLOAT

Paris, Jan. 14. One of Germany's well-known leather factories at Offenbach made an attempt, many years ago, to produce perfect leather goods from the skins of fish. The skins of cod, eel and other fish were tanned, but they were of course always too small to make leather goods of any size. The same firm then decided to make the experiment of tanning the skin of a shark, with results that far surpassed any expectations. Shark-skin is not only beautiful, but it is solid and as hard-wearing as ox leather. It can, however, only be tanned if it is prepared immediately upon removal from the fish. The firm has, therefore, decided to equip its own shark-fishing ship, and to obtain in this way its raw material direct from the ocean. The ship "Aequator" has already been purchased, and is now being fitted out as a floating factory.—Transocean News Service.

PRODUCTION OF AIR ENGINES INCREASING

London, Jan. 15. Production of air engines is increasing well ahead even of what we had anticipated," declared Sir Thomas Inskip, Minister for Coordination of Defence, speaking at Havant last night.

British-made engines led the whole world and were second to none in design and power.

"With one exception, the 'shadow' factories had been substantially completed.

Production of aircraft was on an increasing scale and, while delays in the volume of delivery had been experienced, he believed that the difficulties were being overcome and that with the advent of the 'shadow' factories, the results would satisfy the most exacting critics.—Reuter.

JAPAN'S FUTURE ATTITUDE TO CHINA

Tokyo, Jan. 15. Speculations concerning Japan's future attitude to China will be set at rest during the week-end when a statement enunciating Japan's fundamental policy will be made public, according to reports.

Persistent German efforts to mediate, it is stated, apparently reached a point calling for a vital decision whether Chiang Kai-shek would accept or turn down Japan's peace terms, which, it is believed, consist of ten points.

The Japanese Cabinet met at 1.50 p.m. yesterday for the alleged purpose of deciding the steps to be taken to carry out the fundamental policies approved at the Imperial Conference on January 11. After the meeting Prince Konoye, the Premier, went to the Palace and reported the decisions of the Government to the Emperor, with whom he was closeted for 45 minutes, after which the Premier returned to his residence and the Cabinet met again.

While the second meeting was in progress, Mr. Hirota, Japanese Foreign Minister, temporarily withdrew in order to see the German Ambassador.

Subsequently the Cabinet drafted and informally approved a statement laying down Japanese fundamental policy in China. This document will be submitted to a joint conference of the Cabinet and Imperial Headquarters this morning, after which, it is expected, it will be released for publication.—Reuter.

CHINA WILL NOT WAVER

Tokyo Again Talk War Policy

Tokyo, Jan. 15. Concluding that the Chinese Central Government "is not sincerely reconsidering its anti-Japanese attitude," the Cabinet yesterday discussed "drastic measures to deal with the situation in China," says the "Asahi Shimbun" to-day.

The journal adds that the Cabinet also decided to carry out a campaign of unshakable determination. The Japanese Government's attitude towards the status of the Chinese Government, the newspaper continues, is to be clarified very shortly.

JAPAN'S POLICY

Statement To Be Issued

Tokyo, Jan. 15. Following yesterday's joint conference of the Cabinet and Imperial Headquarters it is stated that a draft statement enunciating Japan's "fundamental policy" would be referred to the Cabinet during the evening or Sunday, when it will be published after Imperial sanction has been obtained.

With capture of Nanking, it was semi-officially stated, the Japanese military forces halted their further drive, actuated by a desire to give the Chinese National Government time to reconsider while the Japanese Government was prepared to enter into direct negotiations for saving the situation if the Chiang Kai-shek administration reconsidered its anti-Japanese attitude.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED
 Later developments in the situation, however, have showed that the Chiang Kai-shek administration has failed to reconsider, but to the contrary, in co-operation with the Communists, is now feverishly preparing long-term hostilities against Japan.

This has compelled the Japanese Government to accept China's challenge and to wage protracted hostilities in an effort to attain Japan's objective, namely lasting peace in the Far East by eradicating the anti-Japanese regime in China.

Meanwhile, speculation is rife among the newspapers regarding measures to be taken by the Japanese Government vis-a-vis the new turn in the situation.

RELATIONS ENDED
 The "Yomiuri Shimbun" surmises that the Government will hand the Chinese Ambassador, Hsu Shih-ying, his passports and sever diplomatic relations with the Chiang Kai-shek administration, at the same time recalling the Japanese Ambassador, Mr. Kawagoe.

The "Asahi Shimbun" however, takes a more moderate view. This paper says that the Government will certainly manifest its attitude towards the Chiang Kai-shek administration to a certain extent, but the forthcoming statement will mainly emphasise the necessity of waging long-term hostilities through national mobilisation, financial, material and moral, in an effort to overthrow the anti-Japanese regime in China.—Reuter.

MANIFESTO TO BE RELEASED

Tokyo, Jan. 16. The Japanese manifesto about further relations with China will be released for publication to-day, according to a statement issued after a conversation yesterday between Prince Konoye, the Premier, and Mr. Koki Hirota, the Foreign Minister.

After publication of the manifesto, Mr. Hirota intends to call on the German Ambassador in Tokyo, Dr. Dierksen, and discuss with him the contents of the manifesto and to explain the Japanese attitude towards the Chinese Government.—Transocean News Service.

Educational Reform In Korea

Voluntary Military Service

Tokyo, Jan. 15. Early adoption of voluntary military service in Korea was revealed by General Minami, Governor-General of Korea, in a press interview to-day.

The interview followed an audience in which General Minami was received by the Emperor, together with Mr. Kocho Otani, Minister for Overseas Affairs.

General Minami said that important outstanding problems in Korea were educational reform and voluntary military service, about which he had reported to the Throne.

It is recalled that General Minami recently told newspapermen that the present "China Incident" had made the Korean people realise that they are members of the Japanese Empire, and are now doing their bit as a nation behind the guns.—Reuter.

China's Determination To Protract Hostilities

Chiang Will Not Capitulate

Tokyo, Jan. 15. Japanese diplomatic officials in China believe that General Chiang Kai-shek will not capitulate, and therefore think it advisable to give positive support to the new administration in North China, according to the "Asahi Shimbun".

The journal declares that Chinese determination to protract hostilities was "consolidated by tactical suggestions of all sorts and practical assistance from foreign Powers."

For this reason, the paper contends, the Imperial Government must, after formulating its fundamental policy, pursue a continuous military programme actively nullifying General Chiang Kai-shek's administration and securing peace and order in areas under Japanese military occupation.—Reuter.

MOTOR DEALERS SWINDLED

Tricked Into Parting With Spark Plugs

The Chung Wah Company, dealers in automobile parts and accessories, 23a Des Voeux Road Central, were yesterday defrauded of 180 Champion spark plugs through a familiar trick. According to a report made to the police a man went to the store about noon yesterday and ordered the goods, asking for them to be sent along with him to a shop in Stanley-Street, where he said payment would be made. A foki named Chin Cheuk accompanied the man to the place named, where he was told to leave the parcel and follow another man elsewhere to collect the money. On the way, however, a third man approached and instructed them to return to the Stanley Street address, but on arrival there the foki found that the first man had already disappeared with the goods. While he was making inquiries, the other men also vanished. The goods were valued at $169.80.
